FRIDAY, MAY 26

TRADE COUNCIL

CAPT. AARON WAGONER of Akron will make his maiden speech as a Memorial day orator at Manchester next Tuesday.

UNCLE JOHN SHERMAN has made a positive announcement that he is not a candidate for anything before the approaching Republican convention. In view of the star part Mr.

Hanna is likely to play in that convention, Mr. Sherman's assurance is a trifle superfluous.

MR. H. CLAY EVANS, the Administration's Commissioner of Pensions, seems to be coming in for as many roastings for his treatment of the old soldiers as were given his predecessor, Hoke Smith. The only difference is that the Administration newspapers are not directing the attack upon the Commissioner.

They have been muzzled. The criticisms come from the soldiers themselves. The latter did not expect to get the cold shoulder when they gave their votes to the election of Comrade McKinley.

THE meeting of Hanna and Foraker at next week's Republican State convention will be a touching event.

It will remind the people of the ancient reconciliation of Jacob and Esau, at Peniel by the Jordan. Foraker will enter the convention bearing pleasant gifts and the olive branch of peace. He will "bow himself to the ground seven times," as Jacob did. He will run to meet his political brother, and will embrace him, and fall on his neck and kiss him, and they will weep. But how long will the new-made bond of peace and friendship last? Not eternally.

LET IT BE THOROUGH.

It may be doubted if interest in local public school affairs has ever been so aroused as at this time.

When the School Board voted unanimously to inquire "into the conducting and management of the public schools," it brought matters to a crisis, the result of which will be anxiously awaited by the people.

More than a year ago the DEMO-CRAT called attention to what seemed to be an organized and persistent attempt at discrimination against resident teachers, both as regarded employment and opportunities.

The DEMOCRAT charged, and not without the approbation of men who had given the best years of their lives to the upbuilding of the schools, that a double standard of qualification had been adopted as the test of admitting teachers to employment in the schools. One standard applied

THE C. A. & C.

To Be Operated by the

Penn. Company

Within 90 Days--Heavier Rails--

Flyers.

It emanates from official sources that the Pennsylvania company will be operating the Cleveland, Akron &

Columbus within the next 60 days, says the Leader. It was at first thought that the first named road would assume charge of the latter by the first of June, but there seems to be something in the way of an immediate absorption. That the road will be under the control of the Pennsylvania within two months seems fixed beyond a doubt.

When the Pennsylvania gets hold of the property it will immediately commence to operate it on the same general principle that

Governs Its Actions toward the other properties which are under its control. Some of the plans that have leaked out dispe-laid any doubt as to the intention of the Pennsylvania to control the C. A. &

C. absolutely.

It is said that one of the first things done will be to take up the old rails between Hudson and Columbus and relay the track with the ninety-five pound steel rails, which are standard with the Pennsylvania lines. This will make an entirely new roadbed, as the C. A. & C. people have just completed the work of rebalancing the road and laying ties. Much of the unsteadiness in the road heretofore has been due to the light caliber of the rails.

There is another thing in the air that will be interesting to the Big Four. It is said that as soon as the conditions will permit the Pennsylvania will put on a

Fast Through Train to Columbus, where it will connect with its flyer to Cincinnati. Heretofore the Pennsylvania service between here and Columbus has been necessarily slow. In the first place it has had to accommodate its train service to the local business of the Cleveland, Akron & Columbus, and hence could not expect to make phenomenally fast time.

It is folly to suffer from that horrible plague of the night, itching piles.

ilion in Pennsylvania. New Castle

DRINK CURE

That Is Recommended by

Mayor Young.

Frank L. Allen Pleaded Guilty--

Police Court Cases.

August Duffy of Cuyahoga Falls, was assessed $2 and costs for intoxication in Police court Friday. Mayor

Young suggested a cure equal to that of the famous Keeley institute. He advised Duffy to have a picture taken of himself in his present condition and look at it every night before returning.

Frank L. Allen, 719 East Exchange st., a machinist, was arraigned on a charge of indecent exposure of person on last Sunday evening near the Goodrich Rubber works on South

Main st.

He pleaded guilty and Mayor

Young reserved sentence until Saturday morning.

Many times in the past Allen has been arrested on similar charges.

Less than a year ago he was corralled in the corridors at Buchtel college by Prof. H. V. Egbert for peeping into the girls' apartments.

Michael Zoltan, 102 East North st., entered a plea of not guilty to a petit larceny charge. The case was set for Saturday. It is claimed Zoltan stole flowers valued at $3 of Mary Henry. The complaining witness and defendant both speak Polish. The case when it comes to trial will necessitate a good deal of interpretation.

Katie McGowan appeared at the city building this morning with a beautiful black eye. She had a warrant issued for the arrest of a neighbor.

ing boiler call on Oberlin; get prices

ENTERTAINERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Labadie Made a Favorable Impression.

One of the most enjoyable literary events of the season was that at Mc-Pherson hall Thursday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Francis Labadie, of New York, dialogue entertainers, presented Shakespearean and other subjects in dialogue. The entertainment was under the auspices of Mc-Pherson Lodge No. 63, Knights of Pythias, and in introducing the entertainers, Mr. T. E. Walsh spoke of this as being one of a series of literary performances to be given for the pleasure and advancement of the members of that order and their families and friends.

The initial feature of the program was an amusing dialogue, "An Original Idea," as an introductory to the

"Woeful Scene" in Shakespeare's

Richard the III. John Babin's

"Damon and Pythias," the "Trial

Scene" in Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice," and Thayer Smith's "A Happy Pair" comprised the features of the program.

Pleasing in their expression, clever and versatile in their acting, and refined in their manner, Mr. and Mrs.

the post.

The sports are in charge of Lieut.

tween Seiler and Kelly, another cavalryman, the Akron soldier proved to be a victor. Kelly was not in it at
